Fair Entry Rules and Regulations

1. Youth Rules on Age or Grade:
  - a. All youth exhibitors must be members of 4-H or FFA by June 1, 2009.
  - b. 4-H and FFA members become ineligible at the end of the calendar year following graduation from high school, or upon the member's 19th birthday, whichever comes first.
  - c. When grade divisions are used, the exhibitor should enter the grade he or she was enrolled in as of Jan. 1 of the current year.
2. Only 2008-2009 projects may be exhibited and only work done since the fair last year is eligible.
3. Exhibitors may enter one entry per lot, except livestock.
4. Items except livestock must be made or grown by exhibitor.
5. All animals must be cared for and fed by exhibitor. Feed will be furnished by the exhibitor.
6. All entries except livestock must be in place before assigned judging.
7. All livestock entries must be in place as listed in the catalog for each individual class.
8. At the conclusion of the fair, the exhibitor must claim and take charge of exhibits. Claim checks must be presented before an exhibit can be removed.
9. The right is reserved to withhold any award where it appears fraud or deception has been made. Judges' discretion will be used in opening canned items if fraud or deception is suspected.
10. The Fair management reserves the right to interpret the rules and regulations, and to settle all questions that may arise.
11. No articles made from kits will be accepted as eligible entries unless specified in a specific category.
12. All protests must be in writing to the Manager accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the grounds for protesting.
13. Protests against the exhibition of an entry must be filed at least two hours before the lot is judged and will be considered and determined before the judging of said lot.
14. Protests against an award must be filed within 23 hours, after the show on the day the award is made, and will be determined at the first meeting of the rules committee.
15. These rules apply to all departments, except where noted and should be read by every exhibitor, who should govern himself accordingly. The fair reserves to itself the sole and absolute right to construe its own rules and regulations and to determine arbitrarily all matters and differences in regard thereto, from which no appeal lies.
16. In the event of conflict of general and special rules, the latter will govern.
17. All property of every character, whether entered for exhibition, display or sale, or any other purpose will be taken into the grounds and buildings, and kept entirely at risk of the owner, who assumes all responsibility for any loss, damage, theft or accident that may occur. Neither the fair nor its officers or agents will be responsible for any such loss, damage, or theft, and it is directly understood that exhibitors, concessionaires and all other persons, firms or corporations having property on the grounds and desiring protection from such loss or damage must make their own arrangements therefore.
18. The solicitation of funds or the distribution of handbills, political literature, religious pamphlets, or any type of promotional material is prohibited on fair property unless it is given out from rented space. No posting of advertising materials will be allowed on the buildings, barns or fences unless approved in writing by the management.
19. No alcoholic beverages are allowed on the grounds.
20. No smoking in barns or exhibit buildings.
21. Animals are not permitted on the grounds unless they are part of an authorized show or exhibit. Guide dogs for the disabled are the exception.
